

Classified employees may not, by law, participate in these activities, even on their own time.

- Candidacy for public office in a partisan election.
- Candidacy for public office in a nonpartisan general election if the nomination to candidacy was obtained in a partisan primary or through the circulation of nominating petitions identified with a political party.
- Filing of petitions meeting statutory requirements for partisan candidacy to elective office.
- Circulation of official nominating petitions for a candidate in a partisan election.
- Service in an elected or appointed office in any partisan political organization.
- Acceptance of a political party-sponsored appointment to any office normally filled by partisan election.
- Campaigning on behalf of a candidate for partisan elective office.
- Solicitation of any assessment, contribution or subscription, either monetary or in-kind, for any political party or political candidate.
- Solicitation of the sale, or actual sale of political party tickets.
- Partisan activities at the election polls.
- Providing assistance to any political candidate, political party or other partisan political organization with organizational and recruitment activities, when such activities are directed toward party success.
- Service as witness or challenger for any party or partisan committee.
- Participation in political caucuses of a partisan nature.
- Participation in a political action committee which supports partisan activity.