I would ask Mr. Kentner for a letter of representation for your file, at which point you should communicate through him. I always prefer email, so there is no misunderstanding about what is said. Plus it is easier than playing phone tag.

Afternoon JR, Steve and Allison:

I was able to reach Mr. Eichhorn following up on my face to face presentation of our acquisition offer two weeks ago. Mr. Eichhorn signed the ACKNOWLEDGEMENT of RECEIPT of NIAGFO for me at that time and told me he would be asking his attorney's opinion. His attorney is Goldman and Braunstein, Attorney Aaron Kentner specifically. I wanted to check whether when involved with attorney in negotiations, best to handle via email, meet face to face or via telephone?

Can I ask Attorney Kentner to send me written proof he is representing or do I need something from Mr. Eichhorn in writing?

Thanks for the advice.
